Francis (Frank) Carroll

After a career that started with the NYPD and ended with 17yrs as an Officer, Francis 'Frank' Carroll was just starting to ease into a well deserved, well earned retirement.....

May 11, 2013, Frank was taking his wife, daughter and his mother to a family birthday party when they were struck by a van driving on the wrong side of the highway. The impact caused Franks van to roll over three times before resting on its roof. Franks family, Thank God, emerged relatively unharmed (bumps, bruises), Frank on the other hand did not. Frank sustained a broken neck with paralysis from the chest down including his arms. After a long stay in multiple hospital/Rehab facilities Frank is ready to come home. As you can imagine, the costs surrounding a devastating injury like this are staggering, while insurance covers the major medical expenses, the costs of converting Franks home to a 'Accessible Home' are not, and are expensive! Frank and his family could use some help so Please, help defray some of these costs for a man who deserves our help and our prayers.
